

Dr. Michael H. Nelson (mhnelson_bkk@yahoo.de) is a Visiting Scholar at the Faculty of Political Science of Chulalongkorn University, Bangkok (Thailand), and a Senior Researcher in Southeast Asian Studies at the University of Passau (Germany). His research has focused on Thai politics, comparative sub-national government and decentralization, and globalization in Southeast Asia. He published the book Central Authority and Local Democratization in Thailand (1998), and co-authored (with Jürgen Rüländ, Clemens Jürgenmeyer, and Patrick Ziegenhain) a book on Parliaments and Political Change in Asia (2005). In addition, he has edited the two volumes Thailand's New Politics (2002), and Thai Politics: Global and Local Perspectives (2005). His Thai Politics Bibliography of more than 3,000 entries can be found at <http://www.leeds.ac.uk/thaipol>. A more recent PDF version can be downloaded at <http://www.iseap.de/images/PDF/Workingpaper/polthai%5B1%5D.pdf>.

Recent publications:

Forthcoming: "Thaksin Overthrown: Thailand's 'Well-Intentioned' Coup." In The Thai Challenge, ed. by Thang D. Nguyen.

2007. "Institutional Incentives and Informal Local Political Groups (Phuak) in Thailand: Comments on Allen Hicken and Paul Chambers." Journal of East Asian Studies 7 (1):125-147.

2006. "Political Turmoil in Thailand: Thaksin, Protests, Elections, and the King." eastasia.at Vol. 5, No. 1, September. 22 pp. (<http://eastasia.at>)

2006. "Bangkok's Elitist Coup." Far Eastern Economic Review, October, Vol. 169, No. 8, pp. 27-30.

2006. "Thaksins kurzlebiger Triumph: Thailands Wahlen vom 6. Februar 2005." [Thaksin's short-lived triumph: Thailand's elections of 6 February 2005.] Internationales Asienforum. International Quarterly of Asian Studies 37 (3-4):265-296.

2006. "Militärputsch in Thailand – und nun? Eine Einschätzung zum Putsch vom 19. September 2006." [Military coup in Thailand – and now what? An assessment of the putsch of September 19, 2006.] Südostasien 22 (4):48-51.

2005. "Analyzing Provincial Political Structures in Thailand: phuak, trakun, and hua khanaen." Hong Kong: Southeast Asia Research Centre, City University of Hong Kong. (SEARC Working Paper Series, No. 78) 27 pp. <http://www.cityu.edu.hk/searc>.

2005. "Thailand and Thaksin Shinawatra: From Election Triumph to Political Decline." eastasia.at Vol. 4, No. 2, December. 9 pp. (<http://eastasia.at>)